Triangle Project is a service organisation working to eradicate discrimination against and within the LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered) community.

The organisation provides services such as:
- gay and lesbian helpline (021) 422 2500
- weekly anonymous sexual health clinics
- safe sex education and HIV prevention programmes
- monthly womyn’s clinic with female doctors
- HIV and STD counselling and testing
- CD4 and viral load testing and management
- professional face-to-face counselling services
- therapy for individuals and same sex couples
- social and support groups for LGBT’s
- home care programme for LGBT’s living with HIV/AIDS
- vitamin and food supplement programmes
- public education and training on sexual diversity

Do you know someone who deserves recognition for personal service to the LGBT community?

Closing date for nominations: 03 February 2006

Contact details:
Unit 29, Waverley Business Park, Mowbray
Tel: (021) 448 4812
info@triangle.org.za • www.triangle.org.za
Identify and nominate those persons in YOUR community who should be recognised and acknowledged for the work they do.

Once again, Triangle Project invites nominations from members of the public for the Community Award of the year. Nominees should be persons who have made significant and positive contributions to the lives of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Trans (LGBT) persons during 2005.

If you know of someone who deserves to be recognised and acknowledged, please complete the form alongside, together with a description of how the person has positively impacted the lives of LGBT persons, and forward it to Triangle Project.

The closing date for nominations is 03 February 2006. After an evaluation and selection process by an independent panel, the winner will be announced during the week of the 2006 Cape Town PRIDE Festival 17 – 26 February 2006.

The distribution and gathering of nomination forms will be coordinated by the Triangle Project Outreach team. Forms will be placed in a sealed box which will be handled only by the panel.

The decision of the panel will be final and no discussions or correspondence will be entered into.

The decisions of the panel will be announced during the week of the 2006 Cape Town PRIDE Festival 17 – 26 February 2006.

How to Nominate

- Supply your own details on the adjacent form.
- Supply the details of the person you are nominating on the adjacent form.
- Attach this to a 1-page description of the person’s activities and how you feel the person has impacted the lives of LGBT persons.
- Hand in the nomination form, together with your 1-page description, to a Triangle staff person who will hand the nomination over to the independent panel.
- Ensure that the nomination reaches the offices of Triangle project before 3 February 2006.

Please try to use the following criteria:

1. How long has the person been involved in community work?
2. How has this impacted on the lives of LGBT’s?
3. What personal sacrifices and contributions have the person made in order to reach out and impact the lives of the broader LGBT community?
4. What are his / her outstanding qualities and characteristics?